
Unit 1: Introduction to Value Education & Human Values

1. Discuss the necessity of Value Education in today's context. How does it complement technical education?
2. What is the need for Self-Exploration? Explain its process and purpose in human life.
3. Explain the basic guidelines for Value Education. Why must it be universal, rational, natural, and verifiable?
4. "Happiness and Prosperity are the basic human aspirations." Elaborate on this statement with examples.
5. Critically analyze the statement: "The lack of value education is one of the major reasons for the misery in the world."
6. Differentiate between Human Values and Skills. Why are both essential for a professional?
7. Write a short note on 'Justice' and its role in human relationships.
8. What are the true basic aspirations of human beings, and how are they different from those of animals?
9. Explain the importance of values in decision-making.
10. Select any two UHV values and explain with appropriate example.
11. Explain Role of Education in Holistic Development.
12. Explain methods to Satisfy Basic Human Aspirations.
13. Illustrate the process of self-exploration.

Unit 2: Harmony with Self

1. Explain the human being as a co-existence of the Self ('I') and the Body. Distinguish between the needs of the Self and the needs of the Body.
2. Discuss the interaction between the Self and the Body. How does the Self act as the seer, doer, and enjoyer?
3. "The needs of the Self are continuous, while the needs of the Body are temporary." Justify this statement.
4. Explain the concepts of Sanyam (Self-regulation) and Swasthya (Health). How are they interrelated?
5. Describe the process of self-exploration in detail. How does it help in understanding fundamental human desires?
6. Discuss the importance of balancing material, behavioural, and intellectual well-being.
7. How does confusion between the needs of the Self and the Body manifest in modern society? Suggest ways to address it.
8. What is Self-Reflection?

9. How should one understand & explore the needs of self and body?
10. Interpret and answer a question on "Who am I?"
11. Outline four practical implications of understanding the distinction between self and body.
12. Explain the concept of peace as described in the chapter. How does it relate to individual and societal well-being?

Unit 3: Harmony with Family

1. Define "Family" as the basic unit of human interaction. Why are happy relations within the family important?
2. Enlist the nine foundational values in human relationships. Explain "Trust" (Vishwas) and "Respect" (Samman) in detail.
3. Differentiate between "Respect" and "Differentiation." How does differentiation lead to conflict in relationships?
4. Discuss the importance of "Care" and "Guidance" in nurturing family bonds.
5. "Love is the complete value." Elaborate on this concept and its role in family harmony.
6. Explain the difference between intention and competence in relationships. How does this understanding build trust?
7. Write a short note on "Gratitude" and "Glory" as values in a relationship.
8. Summarize the importance of happy relations/connections in family.
9. Why is care considered an important foundational value in a family?
10. Select any three foundational values and explain with example.

Unit 4: Harmony in the Society

1. Explain the concept of "Universal Human Order." What are the steps required to achieve it?
2. Discuss the role of social institutions in establishing harmony in society. How do societal values impact them?
3. Explain how trust and cooperation contribute to community building and social cohesion.
4. "Society is an extension of the family." Justify this statement with reference to 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam'.
5. Discuss the importance of understanding and valuing diversity to foster social harmony.
6. Explain the comprehensive human goal (Right Understanding, Prosperity, Fearlessness, Co-existence).

7. Describe how conflict resolution can help in building a culture of peace in society.
8. Define the foundation of harmony in society.
9. Identify and elaborate roles of social institutions for harmony in society.
10. Explain why it is necessary to study and appreciate diversity in fostering social harmony in society.
11. Using applicable examples, assess how trust and cooperation can go a long way in building cohesive communities.
12. Describe in detail any famous anecdote or case study illustrating the practice of principles leading to harmony and justice in society.

Unit 5: Harmony with Nature

1. What is meant by "Co-existence with Nature"? Explain its pivotal role in sustainable livelihood.
2. Elaborate on the interdependence between living and non-living beings in maintaining ecological balance.
3. Explain the Four Orders of Nature (Physical, Pranic, Animal, Human) and their mutual fulfillment.
4. What is Environmental Ethics? How does it guide human responsibility toward nature?
5. Discuss the concept of "Holistic Perception of Harmony" at all levels of existence.
6. How does sustainability drive the achievement of ecological harmony and well-being for future generations?
7. "The Human Order is the only order that has violated the harmony in nature." Critically analyze this statement.
8. Briefly describe the physical, pranic, animal and human orders of nature, stating their functions in maintaining balance with nature.

Unit 6: Harmony for Global Peace

1. "Global peace is not just the absence of war." Justify this statement by explaining the deeper meaning of peace.
2. Explain the concept of "Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam" (One Earth, One Family). How is it relevant today?
3. Discuss the role of international institutions in establishing and maintaining global peace.
4. Explain the philosophical foundation of peace. How does it start from the individual level?
5. Discuss the major challenges to global peace in the modern world. Suggest collaborative methods to resolve them.

6. Explain the term "Global Citizen." What are the responsibilities of a global citizen?
7. "Peace begins within." Explain how individual harmony leads to global peace.
8. Explain the role of politics and economics in establishing peace.
9. Discuss: 'Unity in Diversity'.
10. What is the role of religion in fostering universal brotherhood?
11. Write a note on cross-cultural communication.

Stay Connected. Stay Inspired with GTU-Verse